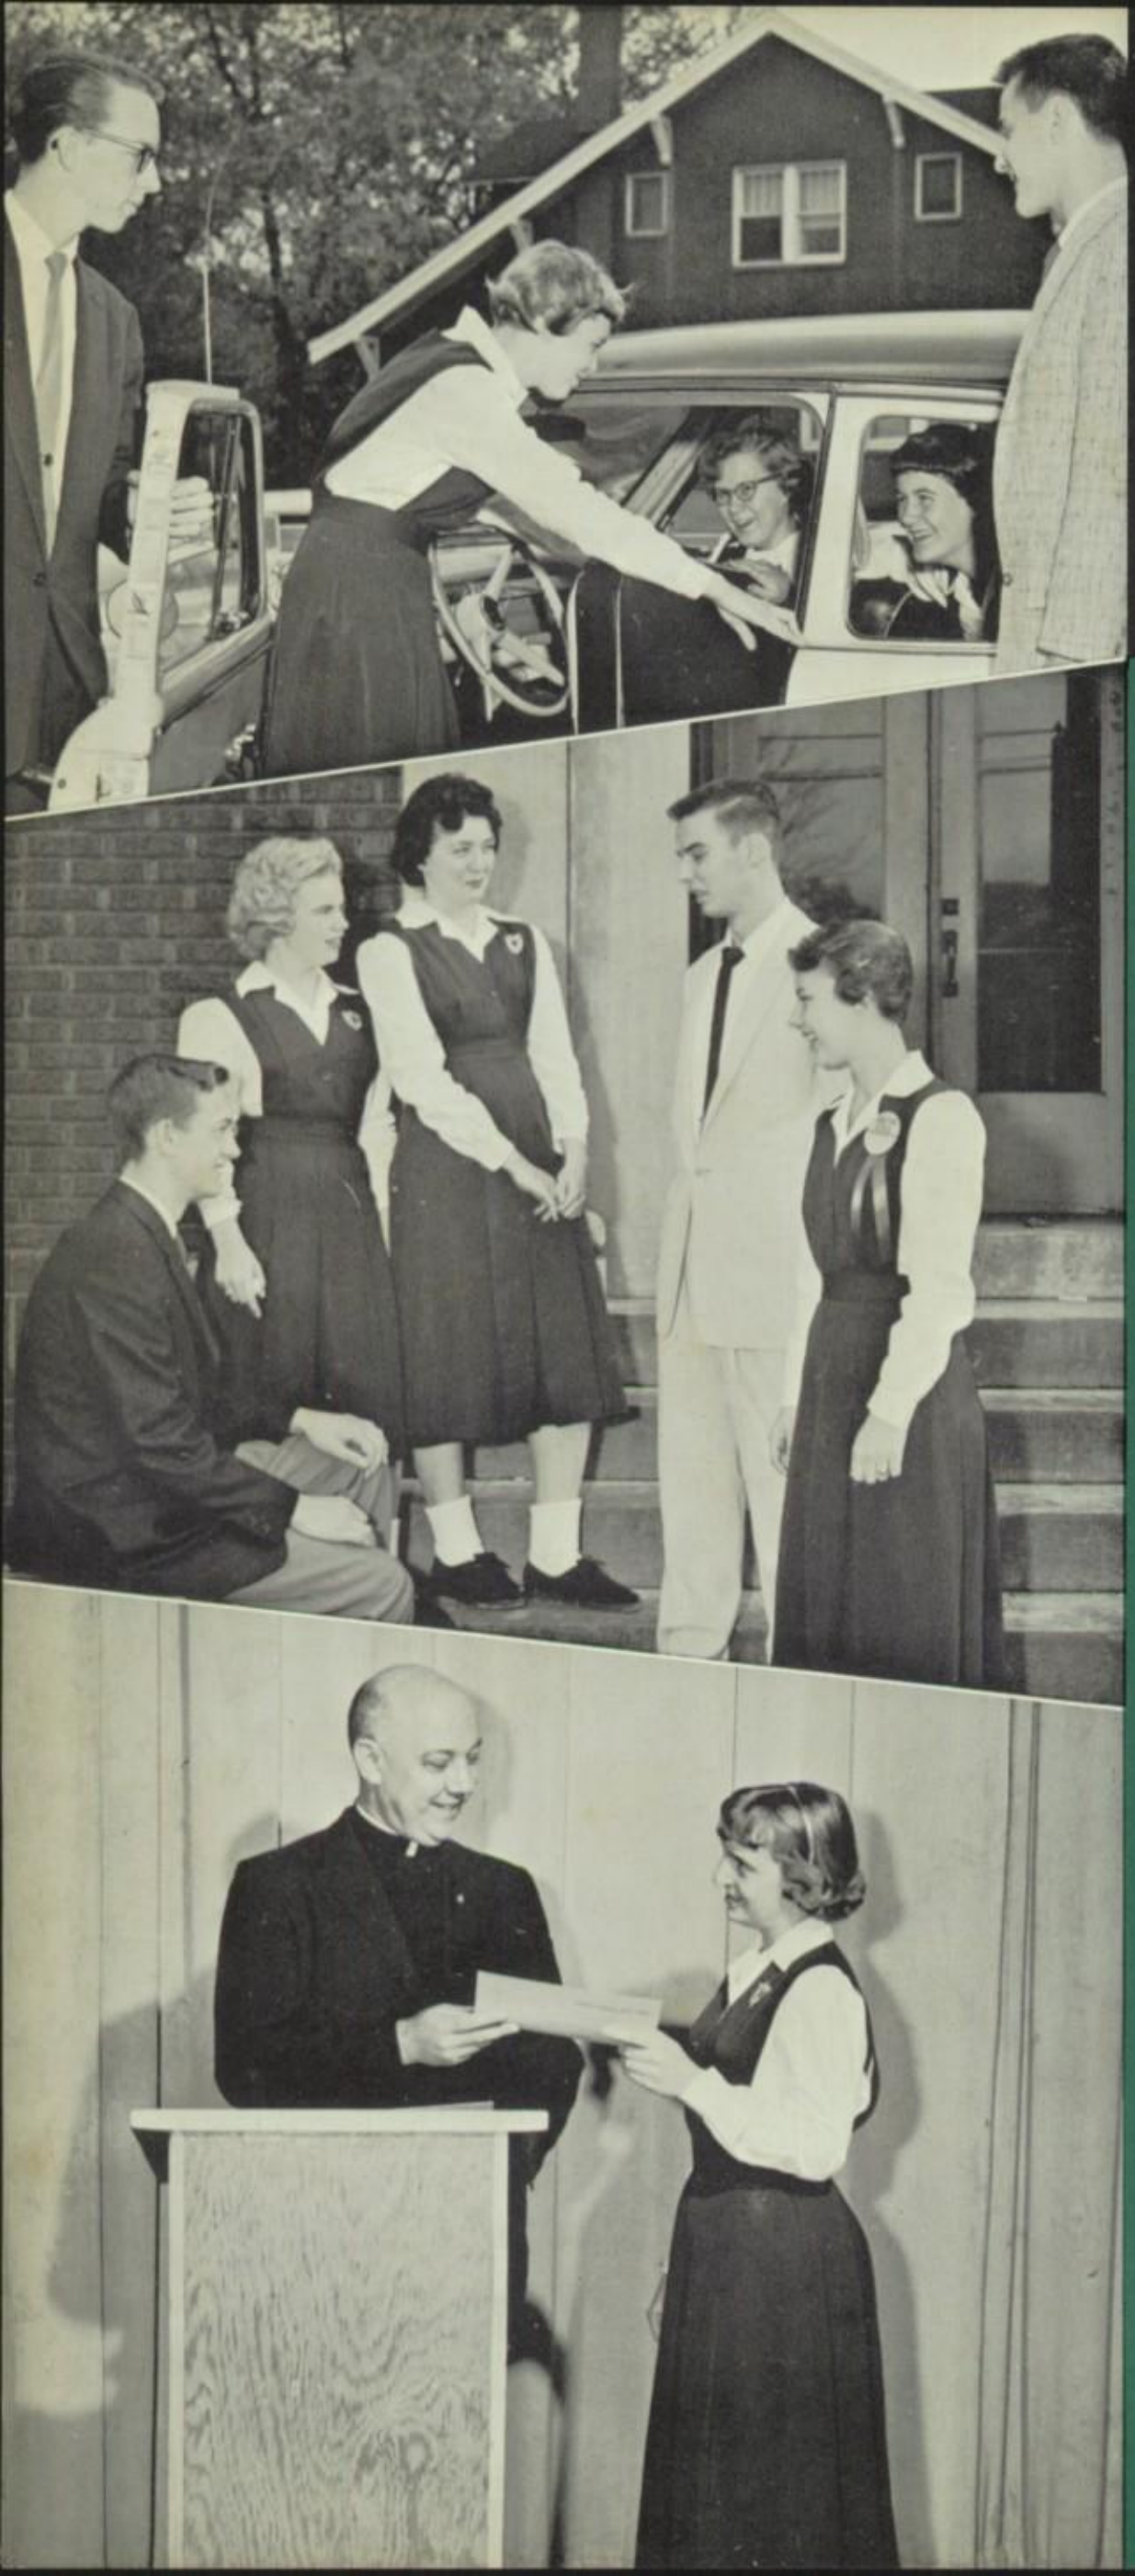
We present . . .



. . . YOU

As you cast a backward glance, you undoubtedly experience a melancholy at the thought of departing from the scene of your most cherished memories. You may attempt to focus your attention on the future, but at this time your paramount concern is the pageant of functions you have just completed. Reflecting on them will give you an opportunity of examining yourself and making an honest tabulation of just who you are.

At first, such an account seems perplexing to render. Of course, everyone is cognizant of who you are and what you appear to be. Yet, it is urgent that YOU know yourself, not merely superficially but intimately. You must realize that your thoughts and actions have molded your character. You must realize that Y-O-U must spell GOD, if life is to hold any significance whatsoever.

As adulthood replaces youth, you must recognize that you have a mission to fulfill. This mission will prove meaningful if you remember that you are a constituent of Christ with a work to do. You have an omnipotent Mother to assist you in the attainment of your end. Since you are a person important to God and Man, your life must be a Mass that is offered through Him, and with Him, and in Him, that all honor be given the Father in union with the Holy Spirit, that real life, the life of grace, be given to man.

What a person you are! Nevertheless, if you resolve that now you wish to take a higher station in the struggle for eternal salvation, envisage your dignity and your destiny. Practice your good works, but never forget you live to become who you are. The measure of your success can be registered only by YOU.

Principal's Message

I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul.

Any student of literature is familiar with these lines from Henley's "Invictus." Any Catholic student knows the limitations which must be put on the meaning of those lines. No one can save himself without the grace of God, for "without Me, you can do nothing"; yet, on the other hand, "God will not save you without yourself." Just how the grace of God and the free will of man are reconciled is a problem which has puzzled philosophers from the time of St. Augustine to the present.

Practically speaking, however, one should remember the counsel of St. Francis deSales: "I must work as though everything depends upon me; I must pray as though everything depends upon God." Practically, then, understood in the proper sense, you are the master of your fate; you are the captain of your soul.

God desires the salvation of every person; He gives that grace which is sufficient for salvation. Yet, in His Providence, He has left every human being free to accept or reject that grace which would secure salvation.

In a very real sense, then, whether or not you will attain your eternal end depends in very great measure on YOU. One of the greatest graces given to you thus far is the opportunity for a Catholic education. Your years in the Catholic high school should have equipped you in such a manner that you will be able to seize each occasion to gain merit for heaven. You are the master of your fate; may you always possess the prudence and fortitude to act in a fashion which will secure your eternal reward.

Classes

At Graduation you will realize that many past events are just memories. However, one product of your Catholic instructions will remain with you to lay the foundation of your life. This is the mental, moral, and physical education you attained through your daily classes.

If you have worked with Christ, for Christ, and in Christ, you have gained much, for you have then begun to understand the essence of life.

Being a Catholic student, you should make all your pursuits worthy offerings. At Central Catholic High, you have been taught to work with Christ. You appeal to Him at the beginning of your tasks invoking His assistance. The offering becomes more meritorious if you unite yourself closely to God. Raise your thoughts entirely to God in your work. In this way you can consummate that worthy offering. Remember you cannot merit of yourself. Christ merits in you.

Your divine life has been developing and flourishing during your High School years. You were to mature as Jesus Christ. Take this maturity into life, and you will discover that you are now not only someone, but you are one who can do something. You are now sent by God to continue Christ's Incarnation and help Him complete His work of Redemption. You are the salvation of many.

You have been called to see that your civilization falls into the arms of Mother Church. You answer that call by "becoming what you are—Christ!"

To answer the call, to achieve the destiny, you must realize that you can do neither alone. You need the "Help of Christians," the All-powerful Suppliant—the Woman who is mother to all men because she is the Mother of God. You can become "what you are" only through the help of your omnipotent Mother.

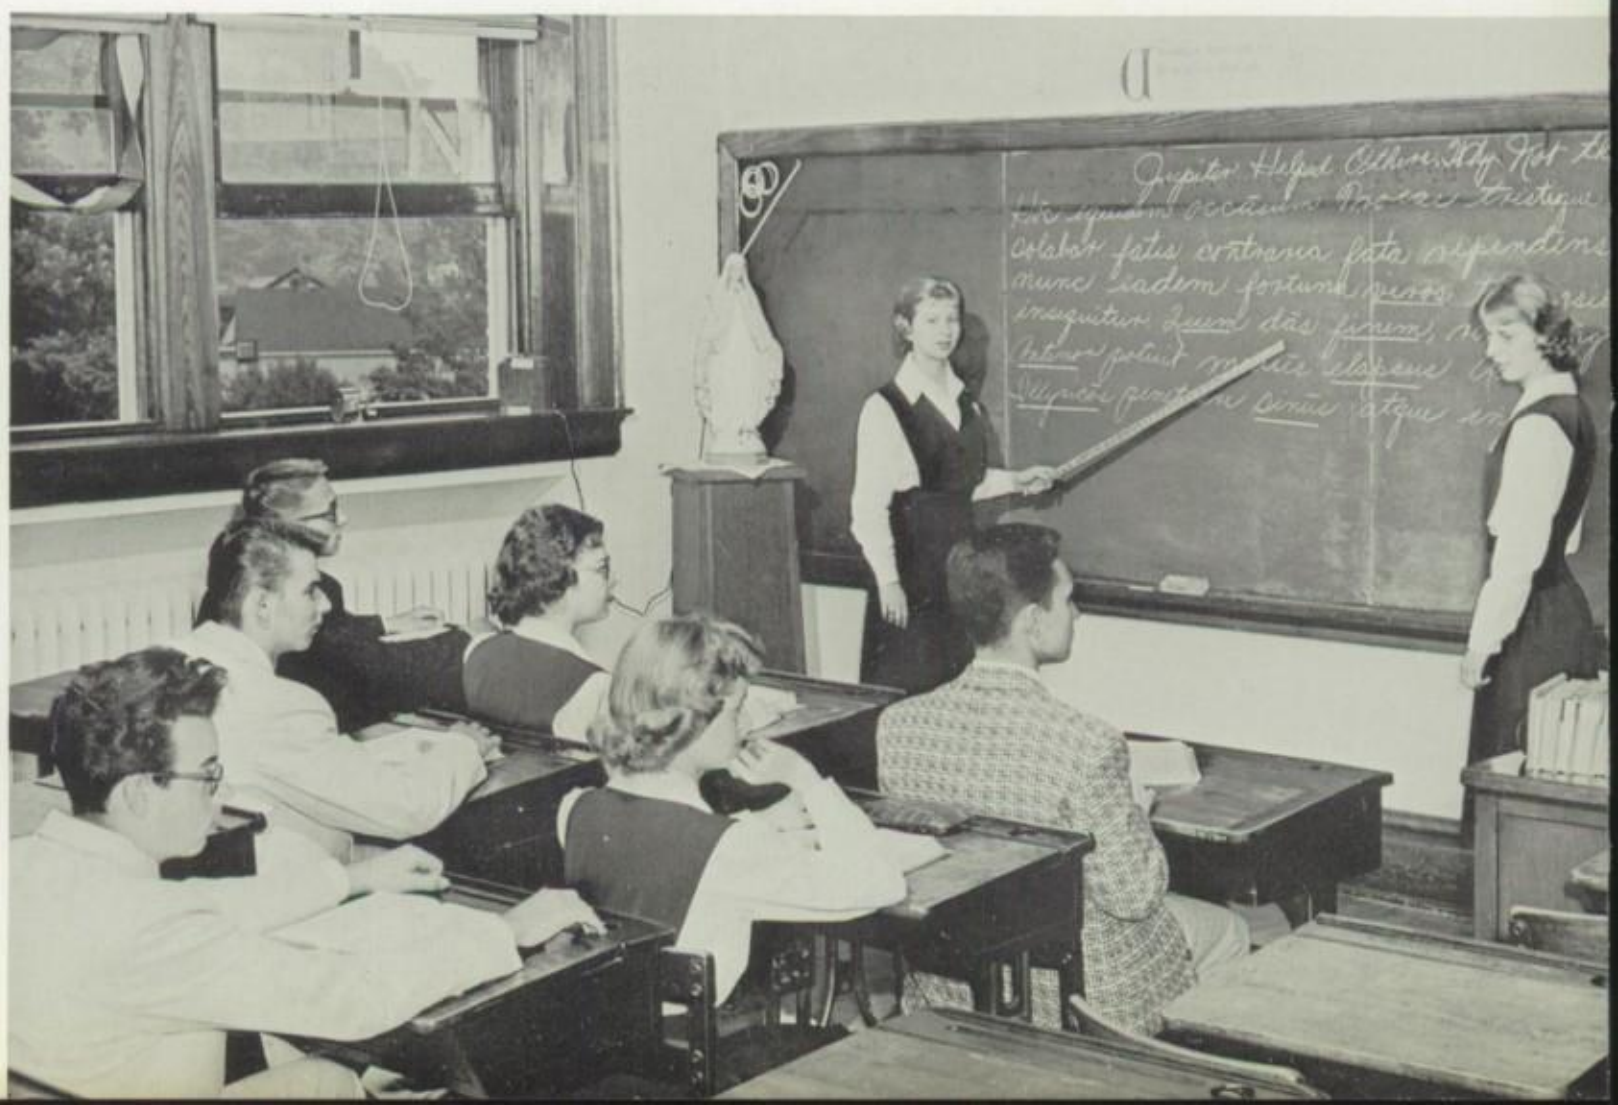
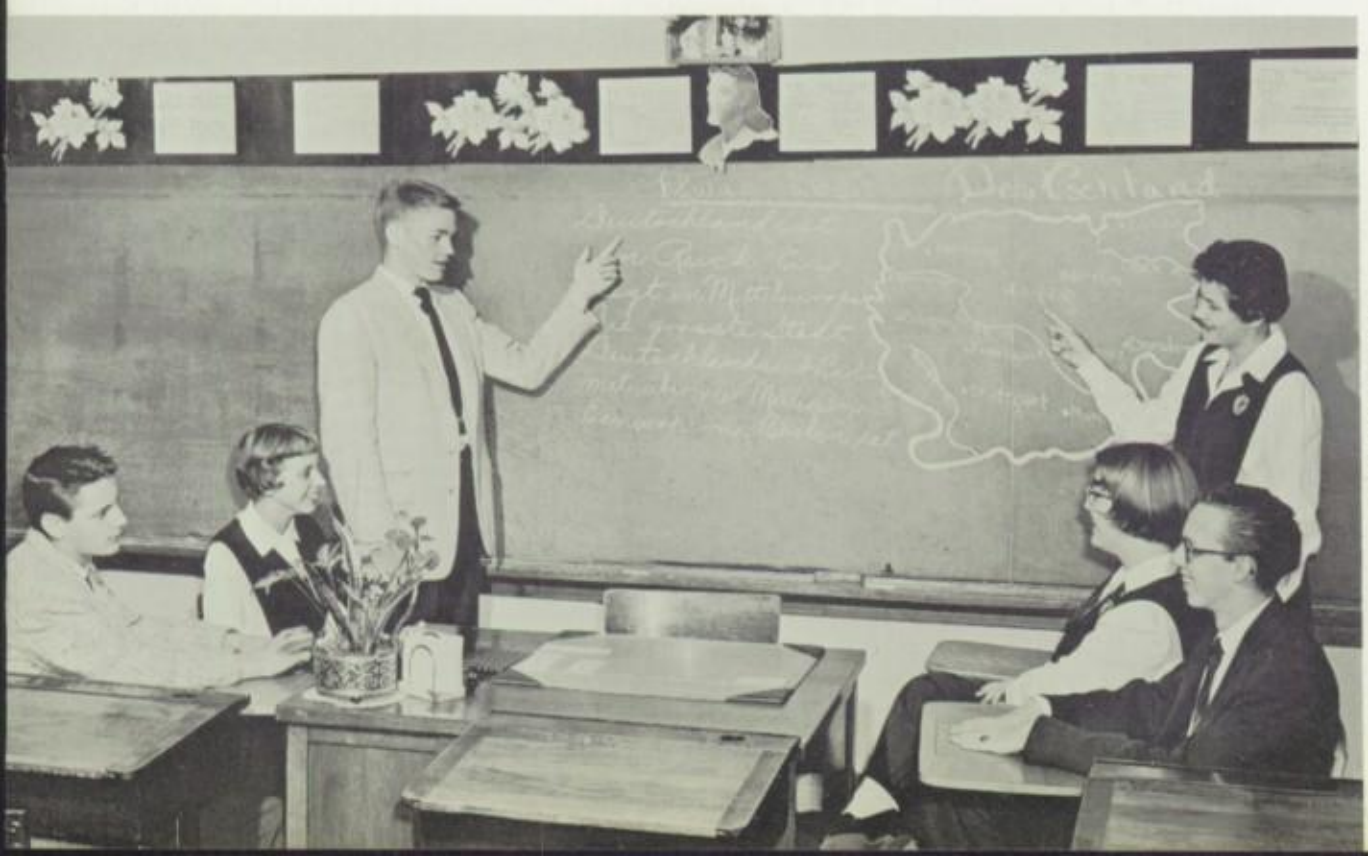
Norene Vogel translates part of the Aeneid with the aid of Patricia Matava, while Edward Beiter, Eugene Stralko, George Prokop, Elaine Oshensky, Rita Campbell, and James Rosenbaum listen as the mythical story unfolds.



What, playing records in Spanish class! It must be listening practice. Here we have Frank Babik, Catherine Morgret, Gabby Podlucky, and Frank Vedock attempting to write correct answers. Meanwhile, Bonnie Guzzi puts her answers on the board while Gerrieann Kiniry, John Berardinelli, and Carol Kozlowski prepare the record player. "Asi es la vida!"

Oh, that French pronunciation! It must be amusing by the laughter on the faces of Francis Pompanella, Henry Wolfhope, Gilbert Holtzman and Patricia Dailey. Janet Kwarta, Jean Marie Raymond, and Georgeanne Bresnicky are giving some examples.



Looking into 101 we see six industrious German students. Sandra Kopler stands by the map of Germany, while Joseph O'Bara and Janet Kuntz give admiring glances. At the same time, Richard Dowdell and Sallee McNamara approve heartily as Raymond Rutledge does his best to translate the paragraph on "Deutschland."

Activities

You are one who truly is someone, and who can do something. Of course, you say, you are somebody and can do many things. But you can do supernatural acts because you are one with God. Impossible, you say? Are you not a son of God and temple of the Holy Spirit? Due to these qualities in you it is possible to become like Christ.

Christ lives in you. He takes each act you perform, every thought you construct, and each word you say unto Himself. Taking these and making them His own, they become supernatural, for Christ is God-made-man.

Still these things remain yours alone, because Christ does not detract. He adds by making your acts worthy of God, supernatural.

Know thyself. If you do, truly, then you will be " . . . one who can stand as straight as Christ." You can do all things in Him and with Him, because Y-O-U spells God.

Mission Club

The Mission Club, with Sister Germaine as moderator, has as its twofold purpose spiritual and financial assistance. It is composed of one representative from each home room. Through the various projects which include the Orphan's Collection, the collection of cancelled stamps, and the annual candy sale, self-denial among the student body is encouraged. The Mission Club is a great asset to the students, to the school, and to the missions.

As Helen Marie Mihalik and Sue Marshall put the finishing touches to their poster, Rita Campbell makes the last stroke on hers. Meanwhile, Daniel Spodienok and Bonnie Grabenstein go over their plans for the Mission Drive.

No, this isn't Santa Claus filling Christmas stockings, but Albert Jerva shading the stockings as Bernard Koval and Raymond Mowerey tabulate the amount of money each home room has contributed to the Orphans.

Stamps, stamps, and more stamps! Included among the many worthwhile activities of our Mission Club is the collecting and sending of cancelled stamps to foreign missions. Here we have Patricia Rosko and Carol Spisak depositing theirs in the box while Anna Marie Kopco counts the number they have on hand.

Sodality

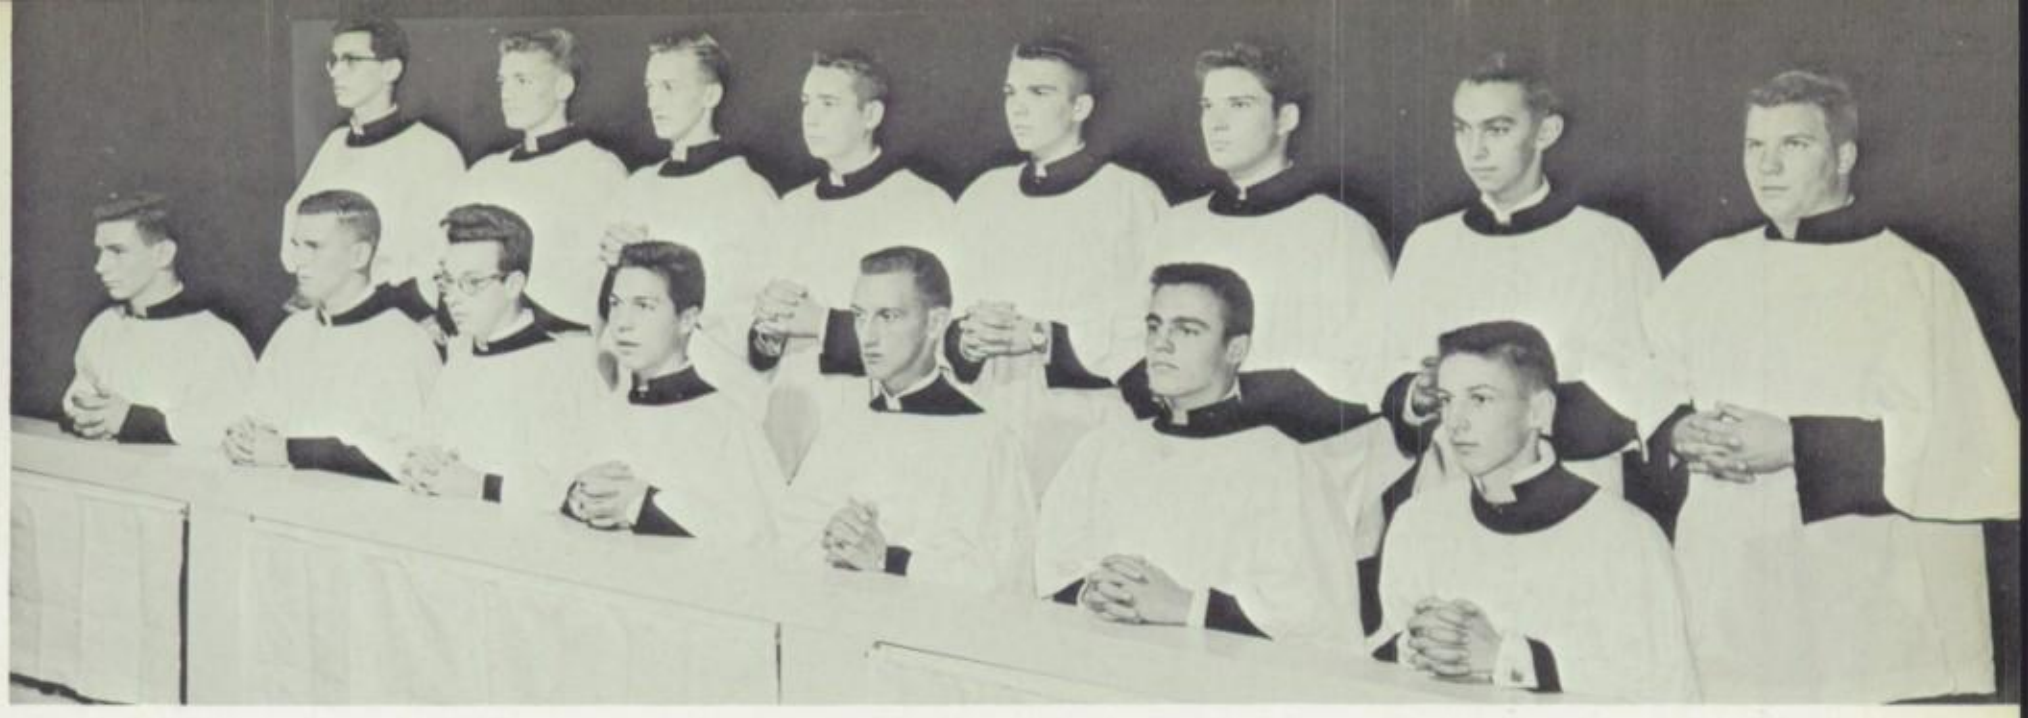
Remember, Mary, you can't say you can't;
for you are His Mother.
And you won't say you won't;
for you are my Mother!
So you will, won't you?

Throughout the year the Sodalists daily ask Mary to guide them and to protect them in all their undertakings. Mary plays an important role in the life of every sodalist, and the climax of their love is shown by the crowning of Mary as their Queen and Mother.

Sophomore, junior, and senior girls participate in the annual May Crowning. The Queen, Mary Ann Erlinger, leads the procession followed by Rita Campbell, Agnes Vranka, prefects; Nancy Canini, Mary Jane Verbiar, Mary Ann Blasko, Sandra Pettina, Georgeanne Bresnicky, Kathleen Dolan, officers.

Mary Ann Erlinger crowns the Blessed Mother while the prefects and officers look on.

Members of the Sodality, A. Duman, M. Malloy, E. M. Witek, G. Brown, M. E. Hecker, M. K. Cowan, M. E. Litzinger, S. Kuharyk, C. Snyder, S. Marshall, B. Probst, B. Partsch, S. Sheehe. S. Logan, F. Bartko, B. Verbiar, R. Gonda, M. A. Barczak, B. Grabenstein, M. A. Little, are praying the rosary, a true devotion to the Mother of God.



The senior servers are invaluable aids to the priest during the Retreat and other religious activities. Kneeling in silent adoration are: R. Walker, H. Wolfhope, E. Beiter, B. Rosenbaum, W. Lecky, R. Henger, W. Roman. Standing: J. Varmecky, R. Rutledge, J. Saveleski, F. Korchnak, G. Kunkle, B. Heinrich, C. Lucas, R. Suttmiller.

These seniors are readying themselves for the future by studying information on various vocations during retreat time. They are: Mary Jo Stadtmiller, Terry Klaum, Charles Sweeney, William Roman, John Podhorez, Albert Tomkosky, Robert Walker, Donna Wallace, Mary Brandle, and Emily Pingatore.

Father Greinader chats with Father Flanagan, O.M.I., our retreat master and spiritual advisor.

Retreat

"The Creator is to be remembered in the days of our youth: all worldly things are vain: we should fear God and keep His commandments." With these words in mind the annual Junior-Senior retreat opened. Each morning the students assembled in the gym to participate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and each day closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Just as a businessman takes an annual inventory of his business, the retreat gives all of us the opportunity to take a personal inventory of our spiritual lives. Father Flanagan, O.M.I., our retreat master, gave us much food for thought. . . . "God's works are wonderful. We must serve Him and not our lusts."

Working hard to make the Student Council an active part of the school are its officers, Denis Grady, Vice President; Margaret Probst, Treasurer; Geraldine Perry, Secretary; and Francis Babik, President.

Student Council

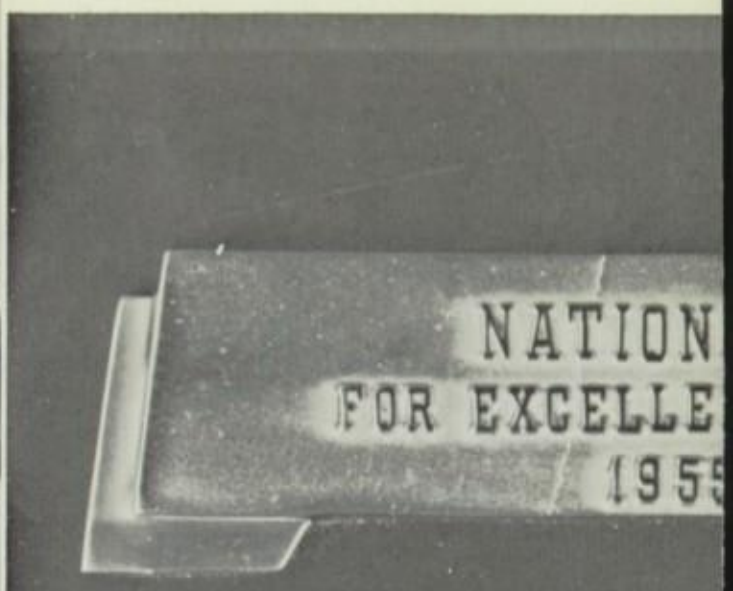
The Student Council is the legislature of the school. It is composed of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and thirty-four Homeroom Representatives. The main purpose of the Student Council is to bring the faculty and the student body closer together. It deals with matters of importance, and then presents its views to the Principal. In this way, your problems and opinions have been duly offered to the faculty for consideration. The faculty then works for a solution to the problems and puts it into effect.

The Student Council also sponsors activities which cater to the merry-making aspect of normal Catholic youth. Such goings-on as dances and even a Faculty-Varsity Basketball game contribute to making your life more well-balanced, more enjoyable, and more pleasing to God.

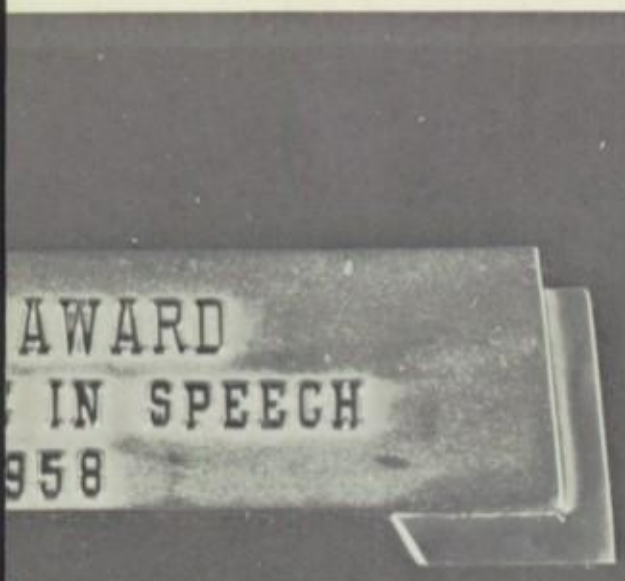
Mr. Bruno E. Jacob presented the N.F.L. chapter award of Western Pennsylvania to our chapter on October 14, 1958. Honorable John P. Saylor, Father Linford F. Greinader, and Monsignor Francis A. McNelis pose with Forensic officers.

Father Greinader and these two forensic students have cultivated a fond desire for plaques and trophies.

Labor and education offer many challenges to this debating group of Seniors and Juniors.



The outstanding forensic event of the year 1958-1959 was the presentation of the outstanding chapter award by Mr. Bruno E. Jacob, Secretary of the National Forensic League. The charter was granted December of 1956. During this time our chapter accumulated 24,000 NFL points with an average of 140 members and degrees a year. According to Mr. Jacob, this almost defies imagination. Yes, it is fun to excel! Our chapter has been the largest in Western Pennsylvania and in the United States for two years. On October 14, 1958 we started at the bottom of the forensic ladder!



"Nothing is more clearly bound up with our everyday needs of life in work, in social relations, and in cultural activity as speech." Forensic coaches and members have established memories of friends, places, and events.

The Class of 1959 has the largest group of forensic students to leave. Each of these students has realized the invaluable training for leadership afforded by the effective use of the spoken word. Much time and effort were expended in the participations in the NCFL, NFL, and PMFL. The forensic students of this class wish to thank Father Greinader for he was the spark that kept the forensic flame ever aglow with the ambition to "get out and do what you can—to be the leaders of tomorrow." Our gratitude is also extended to Sister Mary Claver, R.S.M. and Sister Joseph Marie, C.D.P., and to anyone who has helped us in our forensic endeavors. We have worked: We have won and lost: We have had fun: Good luck, Forensics!

A few busy Seniors take "time out" to listen to Joan Decker, one of the outstanding orators of the League.

The Class of 1959 has the largest number of forensic students to graduate.

The Crusher Times

Checking on the reports submitted for the Crusher Times are: the editor, Lawrence Williams, and his assistants, Gary Kunkle, James Antonini, Frances Bartko, and Janet Kuntz.

William Perry, Robert Sapita, Geraldine Perry, Emily Pingatore, and Robert Cowan are hard at work preparing for the next edition of the Crusher Times.

Meet the deadline!!!
Ben Novak, Gerrieann Kiniry, Rita Gonda, Bonnie Guzzi, Sallee McNamara, Jean Raymond, Kathleen Dailey and Mary Gleason pore over "dummy sheets" with Lawrence Williams, editor, so that the next edition of the Crusher Times will be flawless.

For the first time in its seven years of publication, the Crusher Times has been supported by voluntary contributions from the students. Pupils of every grade use the Times as an instrument to develop any dormant literary talent inherent in them.

The voice of Catholic High is ably directed by Sister Mary Paul, R.S.M. The editorial staff includes: Larry Williams, editor-in-chief; Gary Kunkle, Frances Bartko and Janet Kuntz, associate editors; Robert Cowan, exchange editor; James Antonini, Sports Editor; Mary Jo Stadtmiller, Emily Pingatore, and Geraldine Perry, typists for the forty-three reporters.

The paper of any school is one of its most important organizations. Who knows, in the future the paper may beget another William Randolph Hearst!

Helping Mary Jo Stadtmiller, the typist, to get the articles ready for the school paper are Geraldine Perry, Emily Pingatore and Rosemarie Constanzo.

Intently studying much basic information, James Antonini, editor, seems to be earnest in making Memories '59 the best ever.

Memories '59

In the tedious attempt to forward the best, the Memories staff, guided by Sister Blandina, has compiled this volume utilizing the talents of many individuals to the utmost. The conviction that each would pursue and accomplish his assignments to the fullest shines forth boldly from each page. The splendid cooperation exhibited between the coherent groups of the staff remained undiminished throughout the initial and final layouting of "Memories" 1959.

Such a worthy undertaking was bolstered by the divine inspiration sought daily through St. Philomena. This and the confidence of one and all were the basic requirements which every member of the staff deemed necessary for the success of their project. Subsequently, the sentiments of everyone connected with "Memories" 1959 express the poignant hope that this singular facet of your wonderful youth, lost forever save for its fleeting moments on these pages, will be treasured always.

The Editorial Staff is going about making dummy sheets, getting some ideas offered in earlier yearbooks. James Antonini, Henry Wolfhope, Janet Kwarta, Gerrieann Kiniry, Bill Roach, photographer, and Rita Campbell are not perplexed in their joyous work.

Hard work ceases for a moment as the Memories Staff pauses for the memorable "family portrait." Seated are: Helen Sida, Elaine Friedhoff, Martha McGarry, Kathleen Morgan, Bonnie Guzzi, Catherine Morgret, Jean Marie Raymond, and Patricia Matava. Standing: Daniel Spodienok, Bernard Rosenbaum, James Trexler, Robert Walker, Gabby Podlucky, Francis Babik, Sallee McNamara, Susan Reiser, Richard Dowdell, Barbara McIntyre, and Patricia Boyer.

It looks as though the Business Staff is working diligently to figure out what they're going to do with all that money. It doesn't seem to bother Barbara Rock, Barbara Leap, Evelyn Smith, Betty Lou Wissinger, Ray Rutledge or Larry Williams.

Lorraine Jarvis (Mary Ann Ruth) is declaring her innocence of the murder of which Frank James (Henry Wolfhope) is accusing her. Betty Lane (Marjorie Ream), Lee Wong (Thomas McGrath), Doris Grayson (Mary Ellen Litzinger), Howard Wilson (William McGovern), Erma Saville (Rose Marie Costanzo), Millie Grayson (Joan Decker) listen in amazement as the shocking news is presented.

Our Junior Play

"A Face on the Stairs," a three act mystery by Wall Spence, was presented February 14, 16, and 17, 1958.

Director, Donald Sabo, and producer, Sister Martin de Porres, supervised the efforts of the cast.

Doris Jarvis tries to wreck the life of her twin sister, Lorraine Jarvis (both played by Mary Ann Ruth). Unknown to everyone she lives in the same house as her sister, taking Lorraine's place at instances. The "whodunit" was solved with Howard Wilson's tale of Doris' existence.

The stagehands, James Aust, Robert Sapita and Ronald Mizak, are making the necessary repairs and doing the last minute sweeping before the curtain goes up.

The Face On The Stairs

Dr. Ryan (Raymond Rutledge) gravely reports the horrifying notice of death by murder to Dr. Marshall (David Kessler) as Irma (Rose Marie Costanzo), Millie (Joan Decker), Cassie (Susan Reiser), and Doris (Mary E. Litzinger) look on in solemn sorrow.

The clashes are over and the heroes and heroines are together again. First Row: M. K. Cowan, J. Probst, P. Dailey, J. Decker, S. Bischof, B. Claycomb, B. L. Wissinger. Second Row: R. Dowdell, J. Antonini, F. Bartko, J. Trexler, D. Kessler, W. Alt.

Our Senior Play THE ROBE

The long hours working on the scenery for "The Robe" were not in vain; Francis Pompanella, Carl Kobie, John Varmecky, and Robert Marthouse produced a praiseworthy job.

Penetrating the dusky twilight of afternoon, the drama of "The First Good Friday" evolves before your eyes. This is not the most sought after plot of that day. It is The Robe, the morality interlude affinitive of the mantle which Christ wore to the scaffold of bereavement. Tribune Marcellus Gallio wins the robe when he tempts fortune in a game of chance with Paulus. Marcellus' booty sows the seeds to Christianity for him and his wife, Diana.

Unanimously the best presentation ever achieved by Senior Class fabric, "The Robe" was directed by Mr. Donald Sabo. Sister M. Jeremy, producer, with the skillful assistance of the stagecrew, constructed the settings.

The cast embodied 31 members, as follows: Stephanos, Richard Dowdell; Sarah, Joan Decker; Melas, Charles Lucas; Demetrius, William Alt; Marcellus Gallio, David Kessler; Centurion Paulus, Robert Suttmiller; Pontius Pilate, Francis Korchnak; Captain Fulvius, Henry Wolfhope; Lucia Gallio, Bonnie Claycomb; Diana Gallus, Betty Lou Wissinger; Helen, Frances Bartko; Cornelia Gallio, Shirley Bischof; Senator Gallio, James Antonini; Phoebe Eupolis, Mary Kaye Cowan; Theodosia Eupolis, Jean Probst; Quintus Lucian, William McGovern; Rhoda, Patricia Dailey; Simon Peter, James Trexler; Tiberius, John Boyle; Caligula, Daniel Spodienok; Sarpedona, Sandra Kopler; Salome, Geraldine Perry.

The four attractive dancing girls, B. Guzzi, G. Perry, B. McIntyre, and M. E. Litzinger contribute a bit of spicy entertainment.

Dramatic Coach

From human frailty in drunkenness, thievery, and gambling, a young man, out of strife,
And from Calvary's nature rambling, finds a faith and meaning for his heinous life.

The rogues' gallery of ancient Rome now presents its better side. First Row: C. Freidhoff, B. Rosenbaum, D. Spodienok, S. Kopler, G. Holtzman, J. Boyle, R. Suttmiller. Second Row: F. Korchnak, H. Wolfhope, W. McGovern, R. Rutledge, C. Lucas, R. Craig, C. McMillan.

Christmas Song of Songs

Rejoicing at the birth of Christ are the angels and shepherds: C. Barrett, P. Tavalsky, C. Figura, P. Bowers, P. McCall, P. Hoover, J. Garman, T. Hilton, P. Pettina, G. Brunetto, R. Rosenbaum, R. Bluhm, S. Marshall, R. Holtz, J. Rys, R. Wasylson, D. Hansen, R. Ruth, F. Bansky, K. Grabenstein, P. Walkowski, M. L. Kmetz, D. Holtzman, R. Sandak, S. Kriak.

To remind us of the great love we should have in our hearts for the little Prince of Peace, The Christmas Song of Songs retold in a glorious burst of music the age-old story of the Christ Child, bringing to us the meaning of Christmas in its true sense-the birthday of a King.

CANTATA

The angels and Wise Men adore the Christ Child of Mary and Joseph. Tableau members are: P. Walkowski, B. Rosenbaum, J. Kokoruda, R. Sandak, P. Boyer, S. Marshall, D. Spodienok, R. Rosenbaum, T. Deter, K. Grabenstein.

Glee Club

The Glee Club is composed of Juniors and Seniors under Sister Anne's untiring direction. The boys and girls devote much of their free time before and after school, and on several Sundays to prepare themselves for their performances in the cantata and the operetta, two of the school's entertainment highlights. The singing of the Proper during the school Masses throughout the year is also credited to the boys in the Glee Club. The rest of the singing is supported by the remaining members. The reward for their efforts is an abundance of grace because: "He who sings well; prays twice."

Senior Glee Club Members . . . First Row: A. Duman, G. Duca, M. A. Blasko, M. K. Cowan, M. E. Litzinger, G. Kiniry, B. Rock, E. Decker, J. Decker, R. Campbell, C. Akers. Second Row: A. Ondick, B. Band

Autumn breeziness, along with a fierce competitive spirit, has found the Catholic High Band contributing a vital share to the atmosphere of JCHS. Desiring to excel the band members expend time and energy under the fastidious direction of Sister Anne and Mr. Walter Werzyn. The espirit de corps of the band has capitalized on this tutelage and has fashioned an organization of which you may impart a most obviously favorable Crimson and Gold opinion.

Mr. Walter Werzyn
Band Director

Dick, an able seaman, informs the Captain of the intimate relationship between Josephine and Ralph and of their plans for elopement.

The look of arrogance on Josephine's face is only a pretense. Although in love with Ralph she can not submit because of their difference in rank.

H.M.S. Pinafore

"Perhaps your exalted rank dazzles her," retorts Captain Corcoran to Sir Joseph, as the latter relates to the Captain that his daughter seemed unsuited for marriage with him.

The joy beaming on the faces of Ralph and Josephine is a dream come true. The discovery that Ralph is really the captain has made it possible for their love to be fulfilled.

He's The Captain Of The Pinafore,

The well known operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore", by Gilbert & Sullivan was presented to a highly appreciative audience April 18, 20, 21. The Glee Club composed the sailors and the sisters, cousins, and aunts of Sir Joseph Porter K.C.B. The cast did an excellent job in presenting the atmosphere of joviality and frolic which Gilbert & Sullivan intended. The stage crew worked tediously for months on the impressive stage setting of the ship. The story takes place on board the H.M.S. Pinafore.

The routine atmosphere is upset by the arrival of Sir Joseph Porter and his sisters, cousins, and aunts. The plot unfolds as the captain's daughter Josephine falls in love with a common sailor at the stern disapproval of her father who wishes her to marry the wealthy Sir Joseph. At a crucial point in the story Buttercup, a friend of the sailors who sells them notions, reveals that the noble captain, and Ralph, the humble sailor, were exchanged in childhood. Despite the ensuing confusion, love reigns triumphant.

"We Sail the Ocean Blue" on tap shoes say these energetic sailors: Donna Herdman, Kathleen Phillips, Loretta Carthew, Gloria Zupanchick, Concetta Georgianna, Claudine Fyock, Sandra Kopler, Janet Kuntz, Rosemary Patcher, Joan Stringent, Carol Ann Urbas, Patricia Mihalick.

And A Right Good Captain, Too!

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Little Buttercup	Trudy Cassidy or Jacqueline Bifano
Bill Bobstay	Charles Ferg
Dick Deadeye	Anthony Crimarki
Ralph Rackstraw	Francis Lopresti
Captain Corcoran	Gary Henger
Josephine	Linda Gorman or Marian Koval
The Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B.	Denis Ream
Cousin Hebe	Linda Page or Patricia Mihalick
Bob Becket	Eugene Decker

Crew members, William Perry, Robert Sapita, Donald Babik, Robert Moore, Ronald Mizak, and Francis Korchnak, kept the H.M.S. Pinafore in tip top shape so it would pass the Captain's critical eye.

Ahoy! Our agile seamen, Joyce Ascher and Claudine Fyock, put a burst of energy into the finale of their acrobatic dance.

A wonderful look of anticipation shines bright on the faces of these happy couples as they get their first glimpse of the transformed gym into a fascinating dance hall. Entering are: Francis Pompanella and Patricia Daily, Carl Kobie and Mary Ellen Litzinger, Thomas Deter, James Antonini and Mary Jo Stadtmiller, Richard Dowdell and Gloria Duca.

Georgeanne Brisnicky and Carl Lang are taking time out for a refreshing glass of punch while Gwenn Bender and Bernard Thompson are patiently waiting their turn. They are being served by Rose Marie Tomak, Mary Ann Molchany and Carol Urbas.

A Night To Remember

Soft lights and sweet music hovered over the gym at J.C.H.S. Tuesday, May 13, 1958. This was the big night of the Junior-Senior Prom.

At 8:30 P.M. the Atom-Aires scored the downbeat for the first of many enjoyable dances of that delightful evening. The gym had been remarkably transformed into a romantic garden of paradise. Radiance and happiness beamed from everyone's face as they whirled and swayed to the satin-smooth tones.

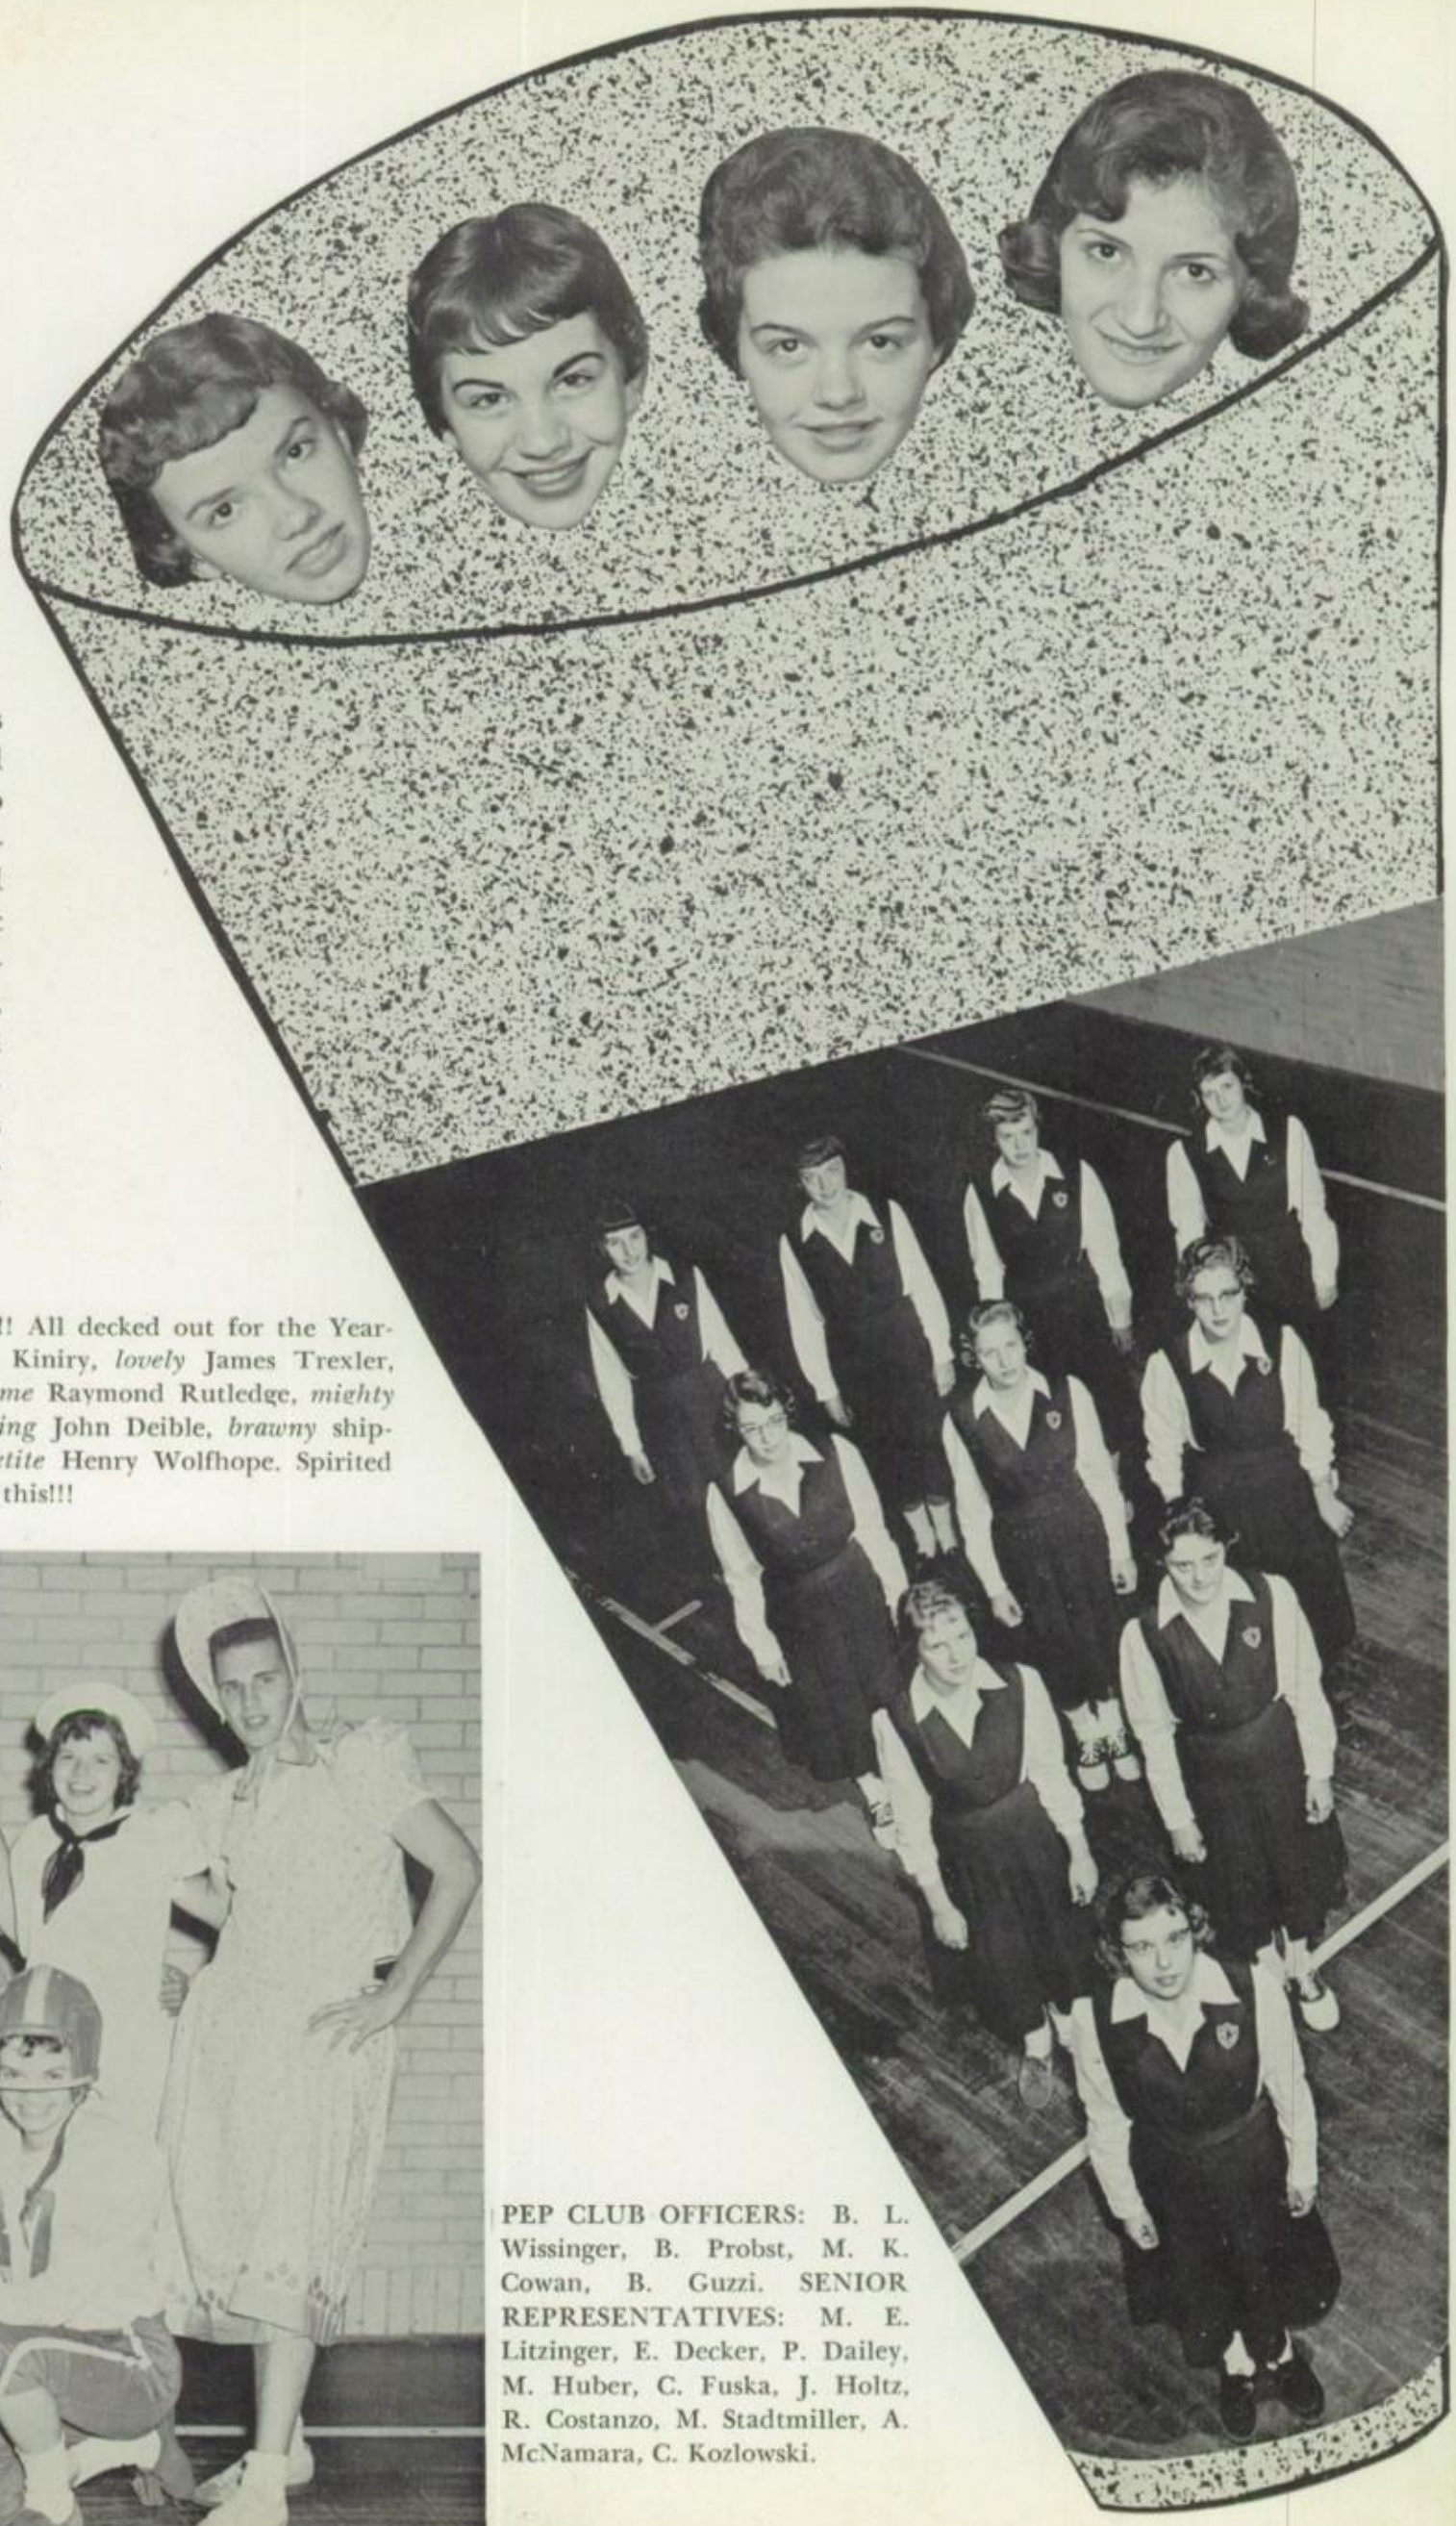
Holding her place of honor on the stage was a beautiful shrine to our Blessed Virgin Mary. Throughout the evening a steady stream of couples stopped to pay their homage to the Blessed Mother.

To the seniors this was definitely a night that will never be surpassed, and will forever linger among the happiest memories of their Alma Mater.

The attentive chaperons are captured in candid tableau. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Guzzi; Mr. and Mrs. Respet; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace; Rev. Kenneth Greiner; Rev. Clark George; Mr. and Mrs. Novak; Mr. and Mrs. Ruth; Mr. and Mrs. Perry; Miss C. Pingatore and Mr. E. Labuda.

Captivated by the eloquent atmosphere of our gym, Bernard Heinrick and Kathleen Morgan, Gary Kunkle and Gail Brown, James Trexler and Geraldine Perry, Gerrieanne Kiniry and Frank Vedock, Betty Lou Wissinger and Ray Pozniak, Francis Babik and Bonnie Guzzi, gayly dance the night away. (O.K., kids, time to come back to reality.)

Are You Ready? Let's Go!



Our Pep Club members give willing hands and spend long hours to achieve their aim of promoting school spirit and supporting the athletic program. The officers, aided by the representatives, are ever ready to assist and encourage J.C.H.S. muscles and brawn. The fruits of this hard work are displayed at every lively game.

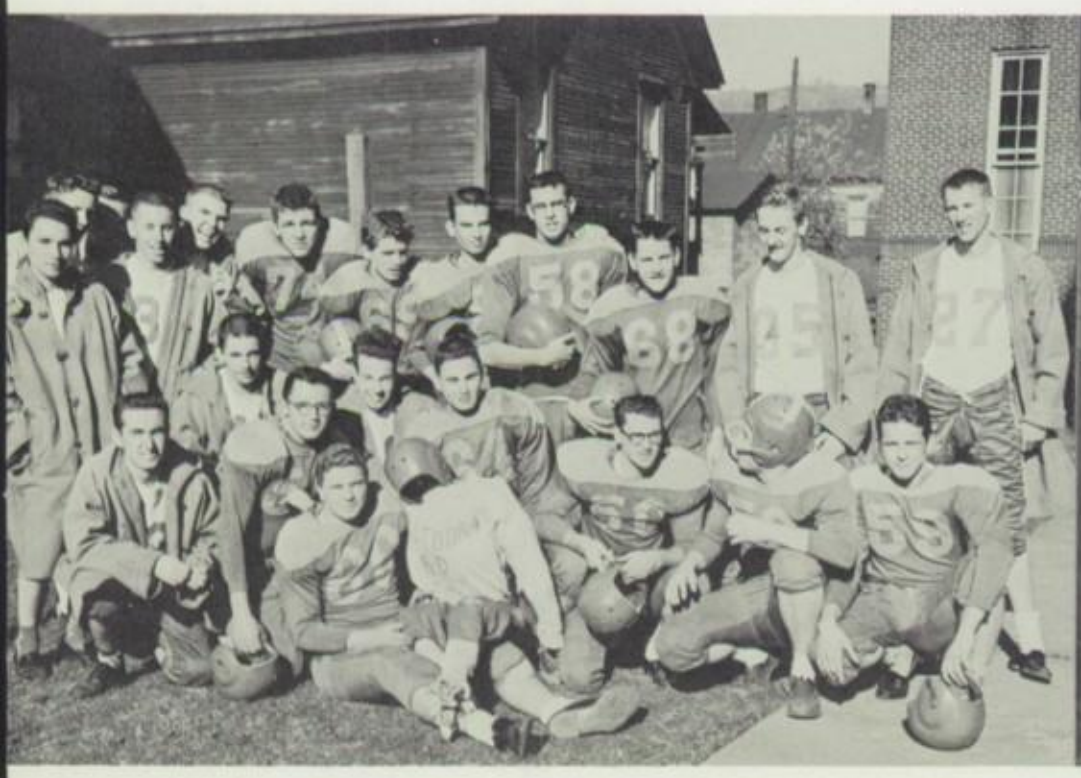
No, your eyes are not deceiving!!! All decked out for the Yearbook Skit are: killer Gerrieann Kiniry, lovely James Trexler, murderer Betty Wissinger, Madame Raymond Rutledge, mighty shipmate Bonnie Guzzi, devastating John Deible, brawny shipmate Catherine Morgret, and petite Henry Wolfhope. Spirited and fun loving hearts prompted this!!!

PEP CLUB OFFICERS: B. L. Wissinger, B. Probst, M. K. Cowan, B. Guzzi. SENIOR REPRESENTATIVES: M. E. Litzinger, E. Decker, P. Dailey, M. Huber, C. Fuska, J. Holtz, R. Costanzo, M. Stadtmiller, A. McNamara, C. Kozlowski.

The peppy twelve cheerleaders demonstrate an eye catching style. Kathleen Phillips, Judith Hindmarsh, Diane Babik, Concetta Georgeianna, Mary Jo Kamnikar, Diane Howrylak, Rosemary Patcher, Agnes Vranka, Kathryn Oceak, Joyce Wolf, Beverly Leitenberger, and Barbara Golian generated a lot of spirit at our games.

Ferocious and fearless looking, or just plain tired and happy??!! The reluctant crushers and relentless dragons are contented with the success of the Pep Rally contrived through the united efforts of the senior class.

Joan Decker, Kathleen Morgan, Rita Campbell, and James Antonini come forth into the life of "Mr. Memories of '59," John Berardinelli, as William Perry introduces him as the key figure in the skit inaugurating the Patron Drive.



A great deal of quiet work boosts every Pep Club project. Betty Lou Wissinger, Bonnie Guzzi, Barbara Probst, Carol Fuska and Mary Ann Huber attack the task of preparing the shakers and JCHS pins for the approaching game.

Angelic Joan Decker and Martha McGarry awakened the spirit of William McGovern, John Varmecky, Robert Suttmiller, Albert Spack, Carl Kobie, and Thomas Deter, the sleeping crushers in the Pep Rally prior to the Altoona Catholic game.

Football

As the lazy summer days roll back to their storied beginnings, an invigorating nip in the air turns all attentions to that vigorous sport called football. Here at J.C.H.S. the football bug hits hard.

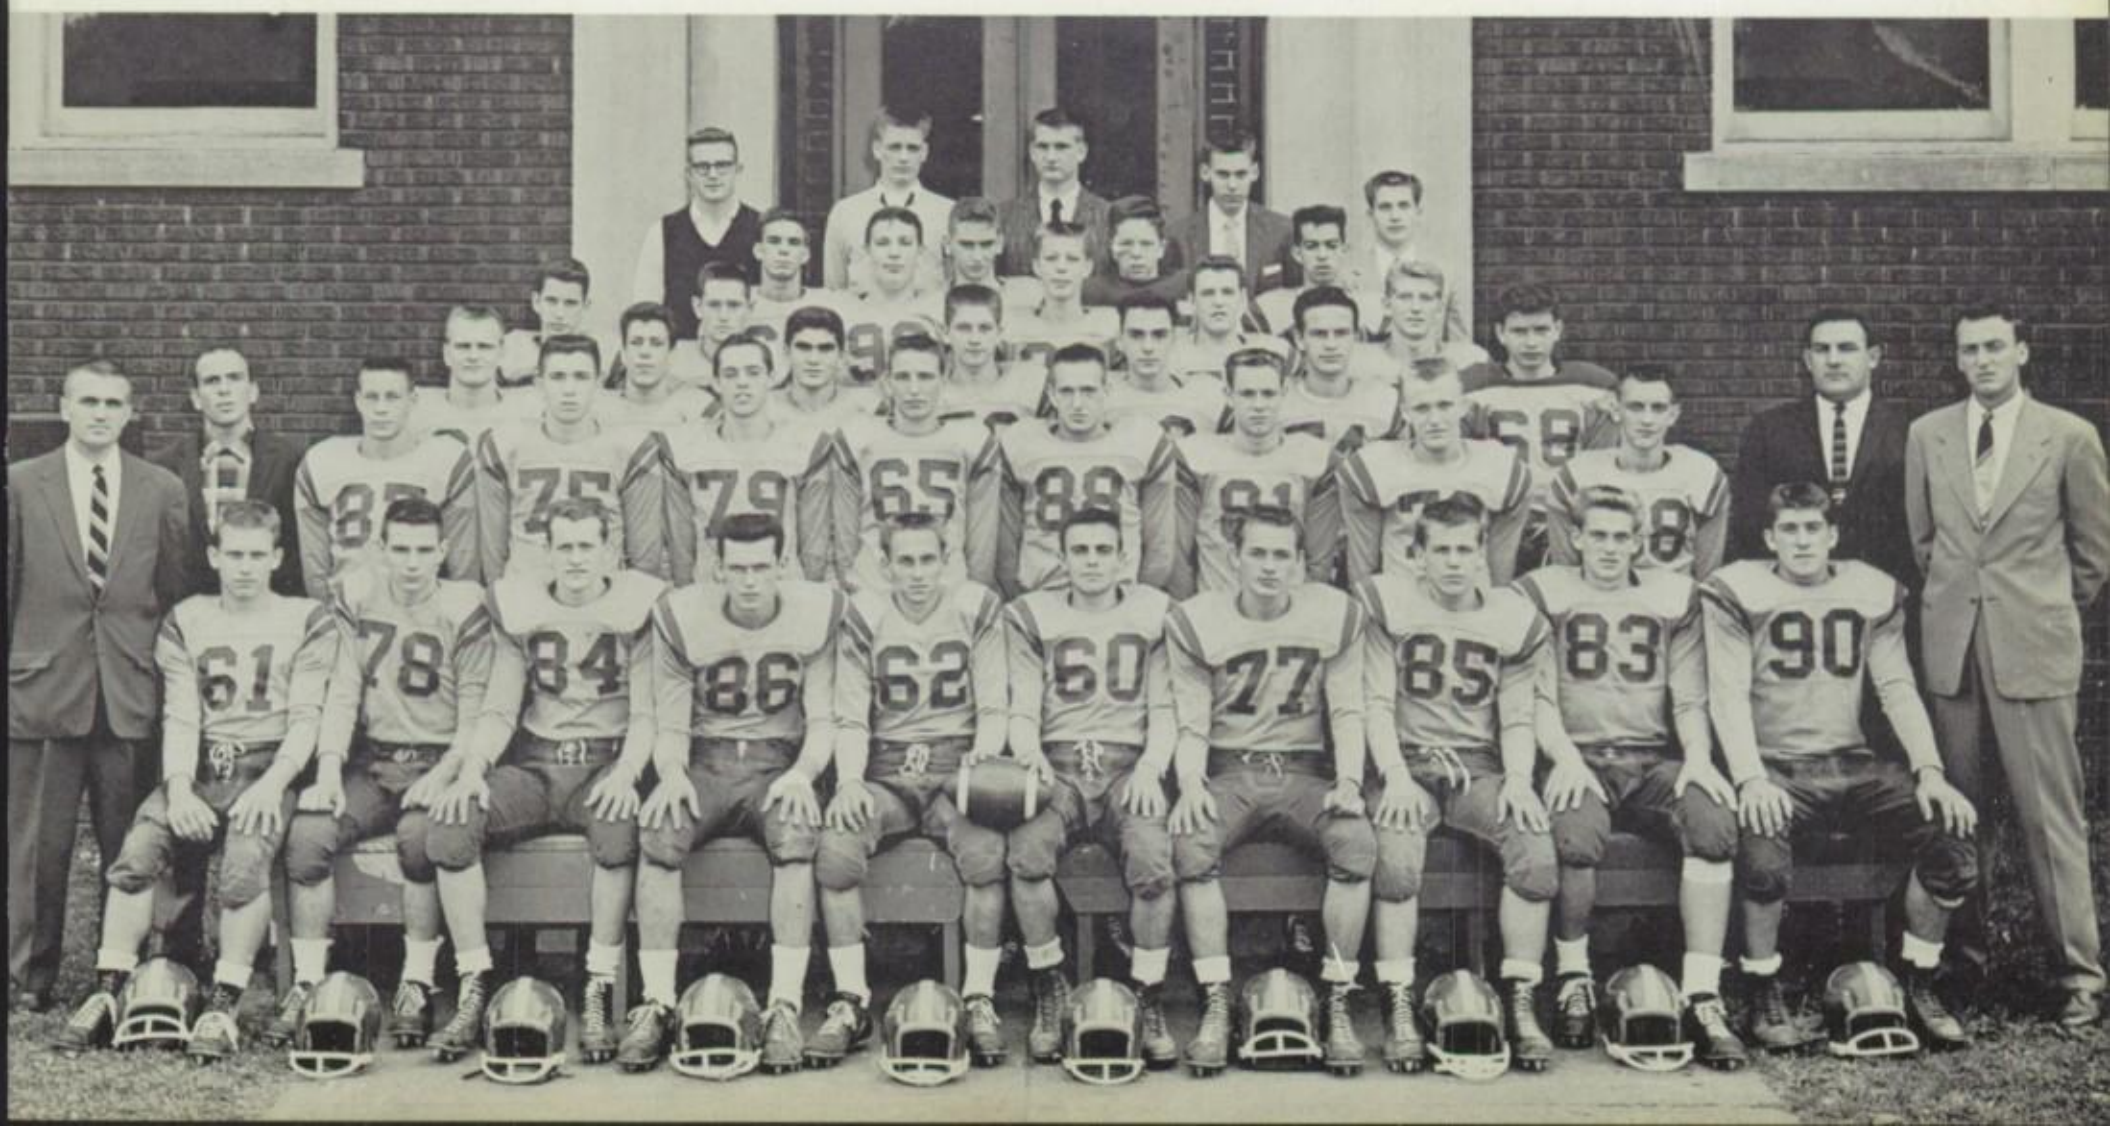
The boys retreat from normal fall activities and accustom themselves to a disciplined training period. This year the Crushers played one of the toughest seasons on record, and they had to train hard. Through the efforts of Head Coach Paul Matsko, who is in his third year at the reins of the Crimson and Gold, the Crushers have again shown how a good multiple offense and a staunch, hard defense should be worked.

The Crushers, sporting one of the heaviest lines in many years, were sparked by exceptional passing and a terrific running game.

The Crushers again showed that clean play, excellent sportsmanship, and determination are really what count in football. These qualities have been and will continue to be a part of the brand of football played at Johnstown Catholic.

Heading into the bus for one of the big games are players: F. Vedock, J. Stofa, F. Babik, and J. Berardinelli. Manager Warner looks on with encouragement.

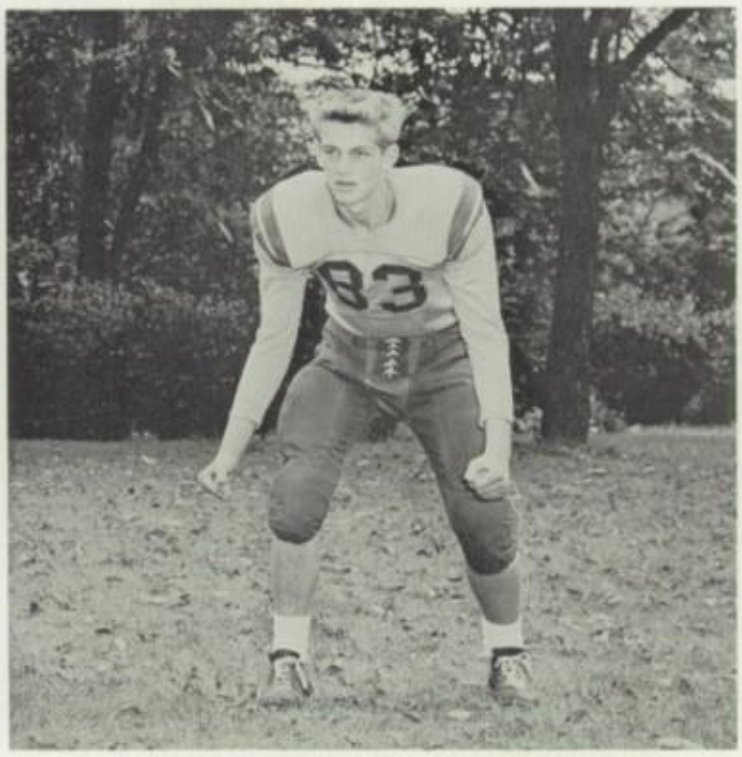
FOOTBALL TEAM . . . First Row: Coach Matsko, J. Berardinelli, R. Walker, F. Babik, R. Gardill, G. Prokop, R. Henger, J. Mekis, F. Vedock, G. Podlucky, W. Perry, Assistant Coach Ondrula. Second Row: Assistant Coach Strazza, T. McGrath, G. Ripple, J. Jurcevich, J. Stofa, H. Kaminski, N. Wesner, G. Belin, W. Leckey, Assistant Coach Cugini. Third Row: G. Gelles, D. Finley, P. Brandle, R. Ham, S. Bovino, F. Garbinski, J. Niepokoy. Fourth Row: W. Kinol, J. Schellhammer, T. Trexler, F. Bansky, D. Hansen, G. Parrish. Fifth Row: R. Harris, T. Burkhard, E. McClosky, J. Milazzo. Sixth Row: J. Kubacka, R. Rutledge, F. Zatalava, B. Novak, K. Warner.



George Prokop 5'8", 142 lbs., number 62. "Pro" converted to right half in his senior year. He proved himself unstoppable in his receiving and carrying.

Tom McGrath 5'10", 146 lbs., number 92. Tom played substitute center. He was good at his position and played a determined game.

John Berardinelli 5'7", 145 lbs., number 61. Johnny played left halfback. He sparked the team with his hard fought runs.



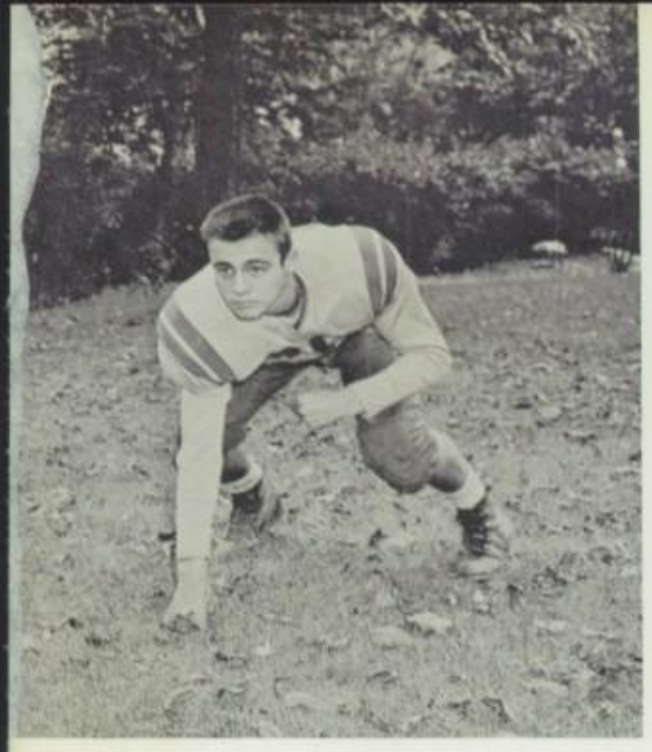
Bob Gardill 5'11", 150 lbs., number 86. Goose played first string varsity in his junior and senior year. He was a big boy and played his position well.

Gabby Podlucky 6'1", 182 lbs., number 83. Gabby made first string end in his junior and senior year. He sparked the Crusher eleven with his receiving ability.

Bill Perry 5'10", 190 lbs., number 90. The heaviest man on the team. Bill played a real rough defensive game and opened up holes for the backs.

Jim Jurcevich 5'11", 145 lbs., number 79. Jim played substitute halfback and gave much of his time plus effort to the success of the team.

Frank Vedock 5'9", 165 lbs., number 85. Butch held down a guard position and played an exceptional defensive game.

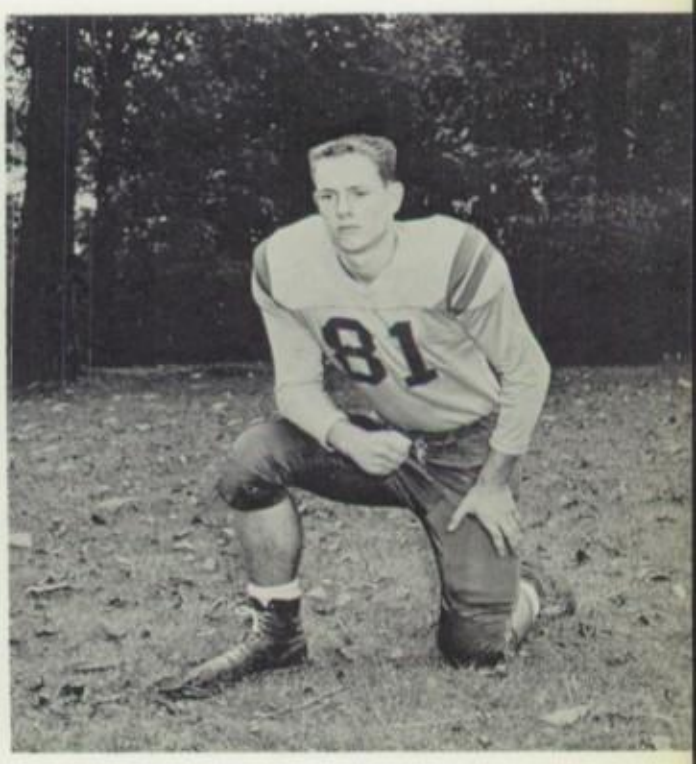


Bob Henger 5'8", 142 lbs., number 60. Bob was one of the smallest men on the team. He played the game in a true Catholic High Spirit.

Henry Kaminski 5'11", 172 lbs., number 88. Herky was one of the bigger fellows on Matsko's line, holding down his blockers and was there when the team needed him.

Mr. Paul Matsko
Coach, Senior Science

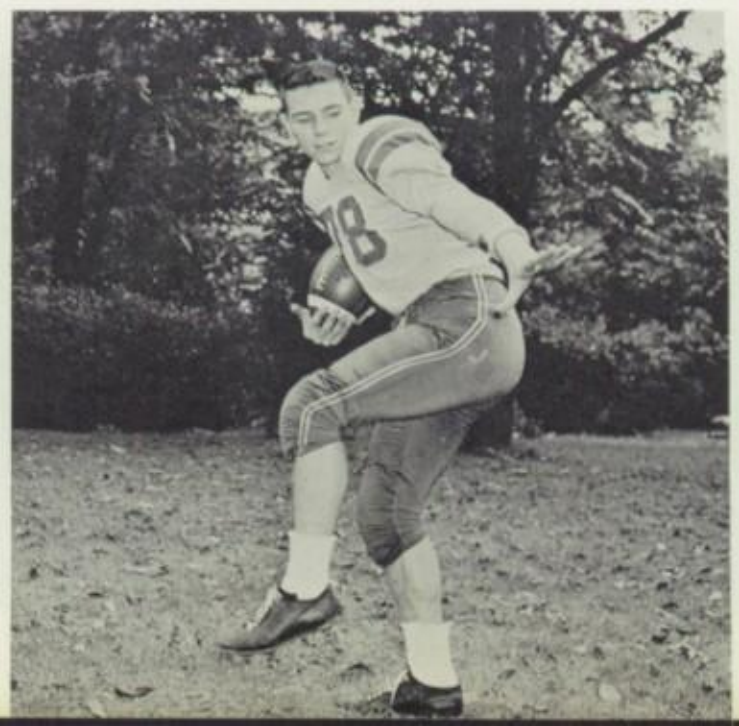
Jack Mekis 5'11", 172 lbs., number 77. Jack was converted to a center in his senior year. He was a great asset on the line.



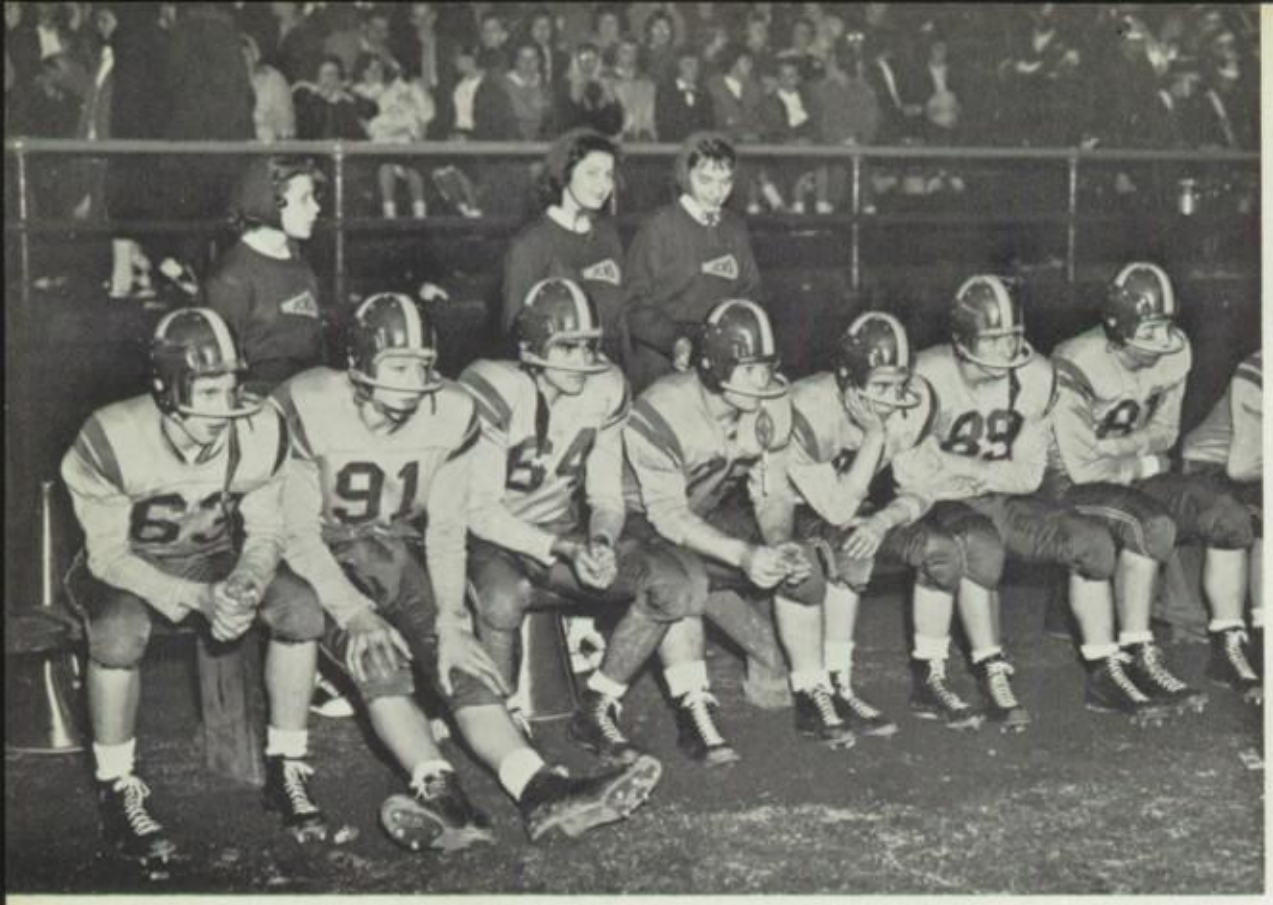
Nick Wesner 5'9", 165 lbs., number 81. Nick played substitute end or guard. He played the game well with all his might, which was plentiful.

Bill Leckey 5'8", 142 lbs., number 68. Bill played substitute guard, was a demon on the line, and was there when the team needed him.

Bob Walker 5'8", 150 lbs., number 78. Bob was placed in the left half position. He picked up much yardage with his thrashing runs.



Frank Babik 6'1", 175 lbs., number 84. Frank was shifted to different positions throughout the season. He excelled with all his might at any spot.



Ready for action at the nod of the coach's head are: Bill Kinol, Frank Bansky, Paul Brandle, Jesse Schellhammer, John Burkhard, Jerry Parrish, and Robert Walker.

Mr. Anthony Cugini
Coach, Economics

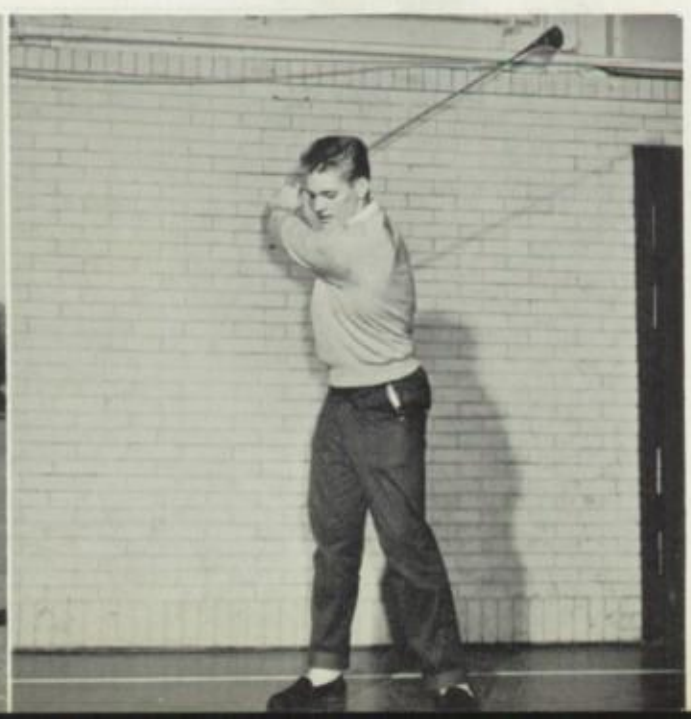
Dave Finley breaks clear and moves in to assist Bob Gardill as he leaps high to snag a pass and gain yardage for the Crushers.



The interesting game of golf has drawn the attention of these two conscientious sportsmen. Richard Craig appears satisfied at what might be called a stupendous drive. Raymond Rutledge concentrates dutifully on his every move, vital to the swing he is performing.

Basketball

The roar in the gymnasium which accompanies each Catholic goal has consistently defied description, so do the spectators register every emotion imaginable as the tingle and awe in anticipation of victory.

Although the contests themselves present a challenge to the team they also act accordingly on the intense Catholic High spirit which you are endowed with to exhibit.

Your representatives on the court have proved themselves to be seasoned performers, capable of coping instantly with any situation. Moreover, their sensations of playing for a school so imbued with the indefdefinable something are deeply exemplified by the ferocity with which they compete, a ferocity duly bound by their Christian training, but nourished by the Catholic principle of succeding through love of Christ.

Yes, basketball at Johnstown Catholic is an intregral part of your animate scholastic existence. Without it life would have proceeded, but with it you have gained an experience not to be attained in any other activity.

In retrospect, you have seen success. You have accepted it. Conversely, you have tasted defeat gracefully. Nevertheless, you will always remember and ponder over the maxim which will forever echo throughout the darkened and vacated gymnasium: "Whether we win, or whether we lose . . ."

Hokus, pokus, who has the ball? Bill Vyhonsky shoves a pass under his legs while Gabby Podlucky lets a hard one go. Jim Trexler and Frank Babik stand on either side of the baffled Coach Ondrula who confusedly wonders what to expect next!

Frank, Bill, and Gabby observe Chick's ordeal.

Gabby and Chick seem shocked at this fellow's behavior.

Lots of action under the board.

Everybody break! Bill has the ball.

Jim leaps high and snags another carom.

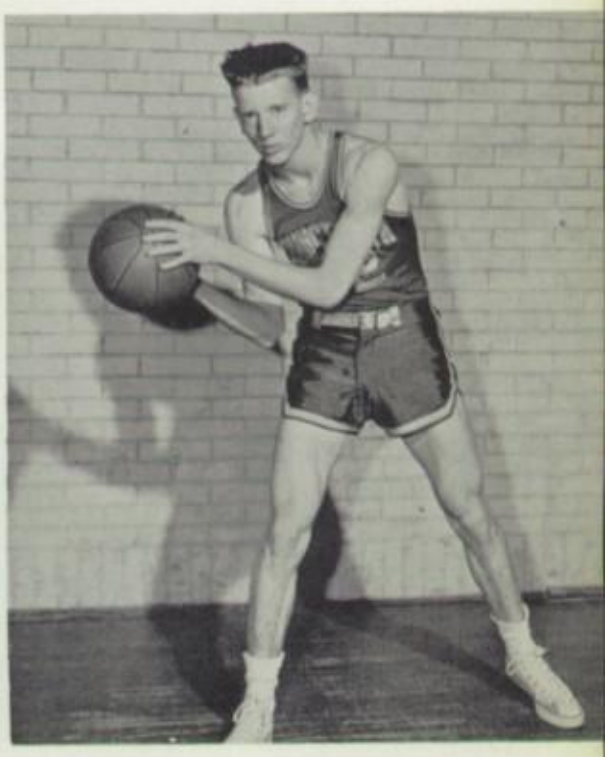
Coach, History



Bill Vyhonsky is undoubtedly the smoothest ball player to have graced the Catholic squad in many a season. His soft, sure shot has startled the opposition and gladdened the Crimson rooters everywhere.

Gabby Podlucky ranks as one of the finest players ever to have competed for Catholic High. His all-around play has attracted the admiration of teammates and classmates alike.

Where is the ball? Ray knows.

Jim Trexler is the big boy of the team. Victory rested on his hustling frame, and his desire to excel shined brilliantly throughout the campaign.

Frank Babik has achieved stardom through his performances this season. His aggressive style turned the tide of fortune the Crushers' way consistently.

Baseball

Baseball, that fast-moving, spine-tingling sport, that has captured the fancy of onlookers the world over, once again returns to J.C.H.S.

The crack of the bat, the whirr of the ball, the thump of the glove all add up to an excitement that will keep crusher rooters on the edge of their seats all season.

This year four seniors will carry the load of putting Coach Paul Matsko's hustlers on top. The team is young and hungry for success.

The senior members of the Baseball Squad include: Richard Tomkosky, Daniel Spodienok, Albert Spack and Robert Gardill.

These are the senior members of the Track Team.

Coach, Physical Education

Track

Track, an exciting sport, has been added to the J.C.H.S. athletic program. Under the able direction of Coach William Strazza, the team, composed of Juniors and Sophomores, last year entered into competition for the first time in twenty years.

The enthusiasm and drive that was exerted in the other established Crusher sports was further exemplified by the surprising progress the track team made. The tremendous Catholic High spirit that has stunned opponents and impressed onlookers has been continued in the support of the squad.

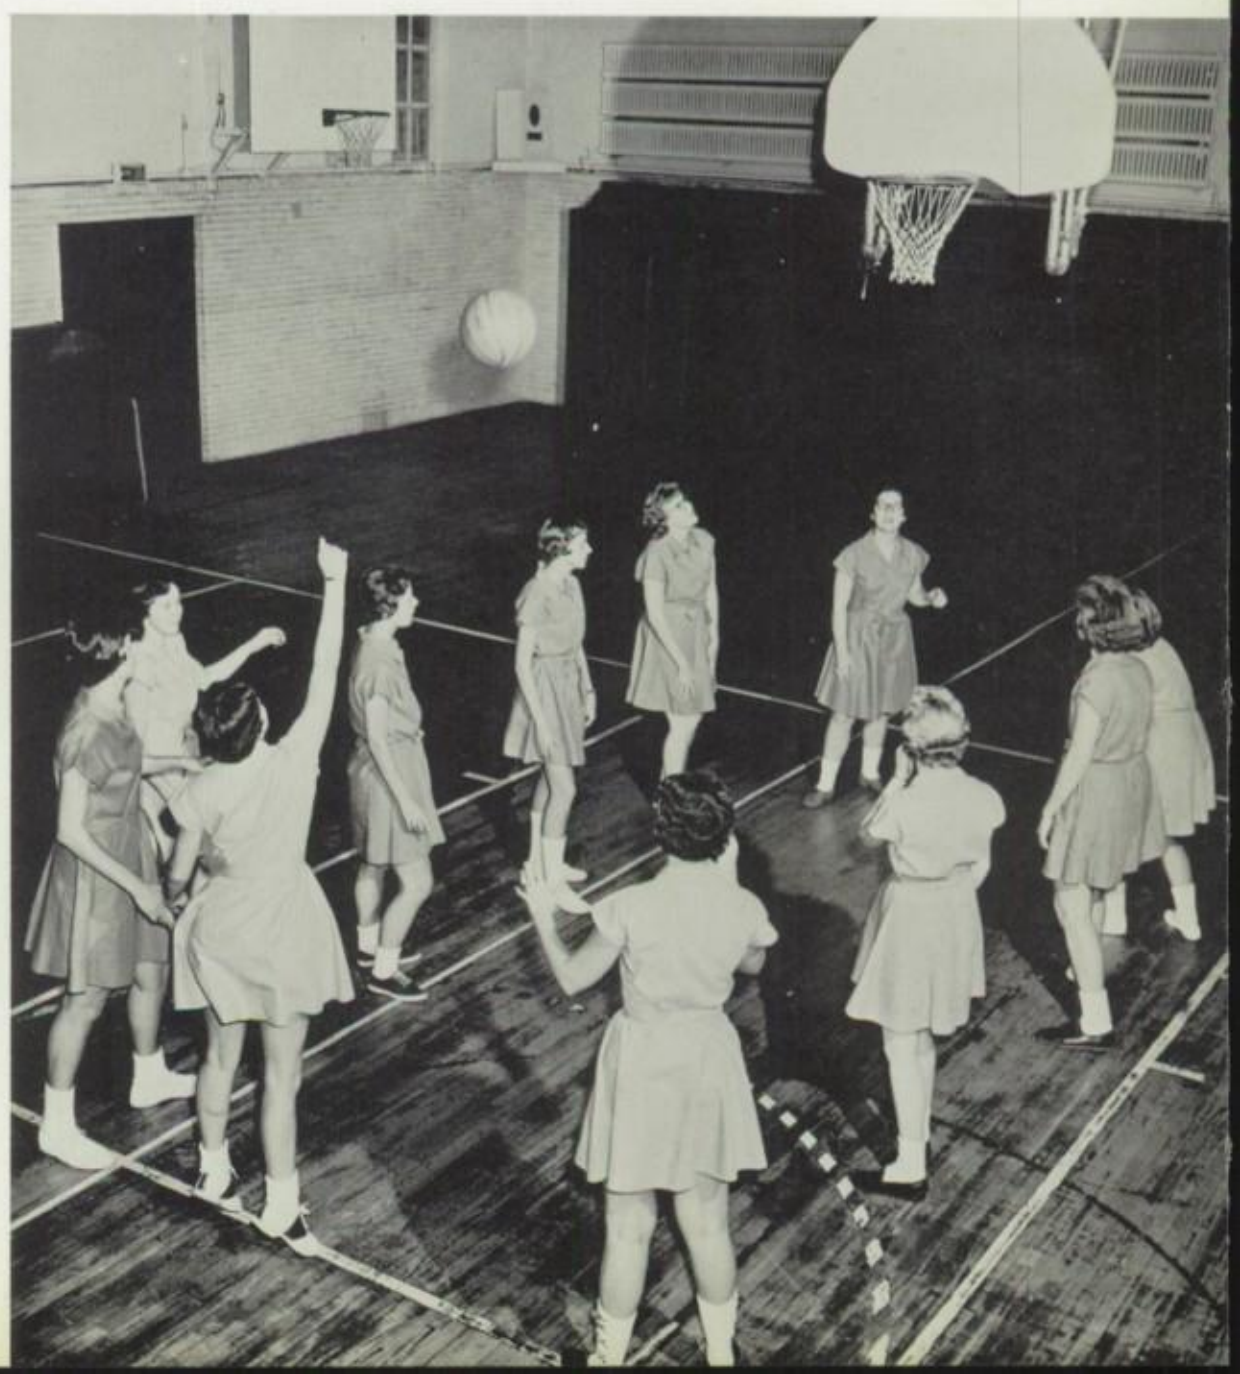
Girls' Sports

Each year the girls of J.C.H.S. contract the sports fever, and the only cure for this malady is a spirited game of basketball or volley ball. Pent-up energy explodes into shouts of joy, anguish and encouragement as the competition becomes keener. Victory is foremost in everyone's mind, but a sportsman-like attitude prevails, win or lose. These animated contests in our gym are played with determination and enthusiasm in a lady-like manner under the direction of Sister M. Georgine. This extra-curricular activity has made a more alert, genial and good-humored group of our fairer sex.

Watching with anticipation as Jean Probst aims for the basket are: Bonnie Grabenstein, Barbara Mauk, Carole Bansky, Janet Kwarta, Rosemary Downey, Rita Gonda, Janet Kuntz, Mary Ann Barczak, Mary Ellen Hecker, and Frances Bartko.

Sister M. Georgine, C.D.P.
Physical Education, History



B. Guzzi and G. Kiniry stretch an extra 3 inches to add to their determination to return the ball to their opponents: J. Raymond, H. Sida, S. Marshall, A. McNamara, B. Verbiar, and S. McNamara as their teammates: M. McGarry, J. Miller, B. Leap, and B. Claycomb stand ready to help make those points kept by M. L. Lux.

It is not as simple as it looks! Just ask J. Probst and P. Boyer as E. Kisha and M. A. Barczak lift their legs for one of the routine exercises. M. Ream, B. Rock, C. Zahurak, E. Smith, M. A. Huber, and J. Sheehan await their turn.

Heel toe! Heel toe! Keeping in perfect co-ordination to one of the dances taught in Gym are: J. McCloskey, C. Hoy, P. Hilton, M. A. Little, K. Morgan, C. Kozlowski, and S. Kopler.

You can change the world.

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord show His face to you and have mercy on you;
The Lord turn His countenance to you and give you peace.
